During the 5 years the person having submitted the result of their police check shall update the Association annually by way of completion of the Police Check declaration form found on our website

Port Dover Minor Baseball Association Vulnerable Sector Search Process

All individuals as outlined in this policy will obtain a Vulnerable Sector Search through their local Police Service.

An individual wishing to use their local police services to obtain a Vulnerable Sector Search should go to the local Police Service in the community in which they live, with a PDMBA Police check form issued from the website (Allows Free Police Checks)

The local police service may require you to produce two pieces of identification and ask you to sign a consent form to complete the check, you will also be required to produce the PDMBA Police Check form.

Depending on the volume of Vulnerable Sector Searches being processed, your local police service may take anywhere from 1 day to 3 months. Usually around 10 days
